HOW TO USE

Personal Labels

Write your mobile phone number on your labels and apply to your valuable items, then place the plastic overlay supplied over the label for added protection.

When labelling your mobile phone, use an alternative mobile phone number. IMPORTANT If you travel abroad, always use the international phone code of your country with this labelling system.

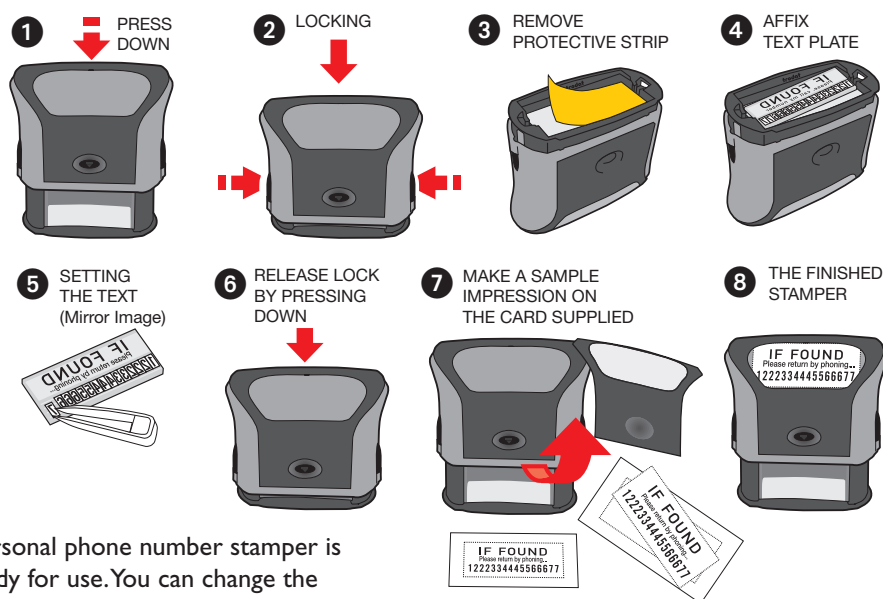

Tips

1. Only use a mobile phone number on Labels and Stamper.
2. When labelling mobile phones, use an alternative mobile phone number, or a friend or family's mobile phone number. Always ask for permission.
3. Only collect a lost item in public, and never in private.
4. Never give your home address to anyone over the phone, unless you are 100% satisfied about the caller's identity.
5. It is always better to collect a lost item than have it sent back to your home.
6. Never collect a lost item alone, unless you are 100% satisfied about the returnee.
7. If you are worried about a caller, always ask someone to help.

'Address Change' cards

Simply fill in your new address and give your friends and family the information they need about your home move.

Personal Phone Number Stamper

Your personal phone number stamper is now ready for use. You can change the phone number on the stamper by simply locking the stamper as shown in the diagram, removing your old number and inserting your new number.

RETURN TO SENDER[®]

The only effective and reliable postal re-direction system. Cross out a former occupier's name and address and stamp post with the RETURN TO SENDER[®] Stamper and send it back in the post.

REASONS TO USE RETURN TO SENDER[®]

Help protect against identity theft

Unwanted mail exposes you to identity theft when it gets into the wrong hands.

Help the environment

Reduce paper consumption by not accepting unwanted mail, and get the former occupier's names deleted from databases.

Help reduce waste

Stop accumulation of unsolicited advertising and junk mail. The manufacturers of paper are releasing massive amounts of greenhouse gases. Do your part to stamp out junk mail and return unwanted post today.

HOW TO USE RETURN TO SENDER[®]

'Stop junk mail' Stickers

Choose which post/letter box sticker you like and place it next to your post/letter box to give the person posting a clear message: 'No Junk Mail or Unwanted Advertisements'

The 'Addressee has moved' Stamper

Simply cross out the previous occupier's names and address, stamp post with this stamper to send it back in the post. This will reduce the flow of unsolicited post to your home, avoiding paper build-up. It will also help prevent identity fraud.
